Heart Works Independent Publishing

Following the loss of his daughter, Jerre Petersen, owner of Negative Perfection Printers, found consolation by exploring and photographing Oregon's landscape. In 2003, he wrote, designed, and self-published his first book titled Heart Works: A Father's Grief, which won the 2004 Benjamin Franklin award. Now available in both hardcover and softcover, featuring 96 pages of full color photography and from-the-heart feelings of grief.

To order Heart Works: A Father's Grief, please completely fill in the information below and enclose this form with your payment.
